Description

This was designed for the 50th wedding anniversary of one of China's largest food manufacturers. This was a very personal gift that represented the recipient's life together and the achievements they accomplished.

Perfect for displaying custom pictures, this award is personal to both the giver and receiver. Many of our clients purchased this award for sports teams, group projects, and 'the winning goal'. It has also been used successfully as a memorial, where we treat this as the appropriate monument it is.

This award above features crystal to represent timeless beauty. The center round shape proudly displays a photographic picture that you provide. The name and description stand out in the engraving areas with each personalization meaningful to you and the recipients. The engraving areas can be etched with additional pictures and icons representing what the recipient achieved.
