Description

This H shaped award created for an Art society shows off the accuracy and detail we can achieve in acrylic awards. Cut in three separate sections, each color is a different acrylic piece that are fitted together to form the whole unit. The white base provides plenty of space for plaques, engravings, and namesWe can achieve nearly any set of words and fonts that would look good on this type of award. Our creative team can help you choose a potent word and impactful layout that highlights the essence of your organization and its people.
