Description

This beautiful acrylic award proudly displays the St Louis Arch for the hockey team: The St Louis Blues. The recipients are players who make an unusually awesome play in a game.

The logo is embedded in the acrylic body and the base leaves plenty of room for engravings and descriptions. The body of the award can be molded into any shape. The area under the arch holds the puck involved in the particular play. Just talk to our creative team about matching your team's logo and iconic shapes. We'll help you score big.
