Description

The spinner spins and gets a lot of attention. Quality is first and foremost on this award. Waste Management presented this award to their employees for providing high levels of quality and creating customer satisfaction. We place the same quality in every piece we make.

This clear acrylic award features a custom shaped Q to stand for quality. It spins easily around the two connection points. Our creative team can talk to you about this type of award for quality or how to have any other letter or number for your use.
