Description

Our creative team outdid themselves with a bold rounded triangle design with an embedment and surface printing. The double level printing creates an almost holographic effect in this deal gift. It has a complexity that will leave the recipient look at it over and over again.

Every detail in this award is precisely planned and our creative team can help you layout the colors and details of the text so they all show up brilliantly. There are so many possibilities with this type of an award and your need for a special shape will be easily implemented.
