Description

The design of this award is simple, just a clear Lucite rectangle. The text is printed on clear acetate in half tones.

But, look at the detail of that printing. To celebrate the opening of a new building, we recreated the building down to the tiniest detail. We captured the leaves of the trees, the bricks, and every window, column, and stair. Our artists created a photo quality image, and that detail and quality sets us apart. If you are looking to immortalize an image, this is the way to do it.
