Description

The cute penguin cutting it up on the iceberg certainly catches the attention. To create the mountain effect, we milled the clear Lucite, giving it the glacier icy appearance. You can feel and see the bumps, just like on real ice.

We printed Branded message and a penguin on the surface of the award. We printed and laser cut the penguin and added it to the award. The bigger penguin seems to jump off the ice at you but is attached securely. We'll think outside the box for you. You won't surprise us with requests; after a snowboarding penguin, not much astonishments us.
