Description

All you have to see is New Orleans and a saxophone to know this custom award is jazzie. We created this for a sales conference in New Orleans. The organizers thought the free spirit of the jazz and street bands matched the free spirit of their salespeople. We brought it all together with this award.

The miniature tenor saxophone model is embedded within the transparent Lucite. The wedge cut of the cylinder allows the printing on the bottom to be reflected as if on the sides. It's a great award that is well loved.
