Description

The bullet is all about precision and is critical to their use. Knowing just what each of these will do allows people to choose the best bullet for the job.

Hornady knows this and memorialized a test run of their products in this Lucite presentation display. Our creative team was up to the task of creating this custom award and showcasing each round perfectly. Actual bullet shells are embedded in this custom Lucite awards. The printing is done on a clear acetate and embedded within the Lucite.
