Description

MCM Corp wanted a custom award that would be seen as very different and unique that would distinguish three different qualities in different people. An appropriate word was embedded within each of the circles depending on the recipient's achievement. Custom water jet cut out; it features three circle areas containing the image of circling arrows. The square area has plenty of space for text and logos, as does the free space within the circles. We can closely duplicate any of the awards below or change them to suit your needs. These products vary in size, features and details, so each project is priced to meet your needs. Call 800 -875-1725 and talk with a designer.
